

Planned Gifts at Achieve Twin Cities

For 20 years, Achieve Twin Cities has been rallying community support and delivering best-in-class programs to inspire and equip young people in Minneapolis and Saint Paul for careers, college and life.

You can be part of this powerful legacy with a planned gift, which helps ensure that our young people have full and equitable access to postsecondary education and career opportunities, which contributes toward building a more just and vibrant community.

Bequests

You can make a bequest to Achieve Twin Cities through your will or trust, and designate this gift for general support or a specific Achieve program or purpose. A bequest is generally a revocable gift, which means it can be changed or modified at any time.

You can make a specific bequest, which designates a specific dollar amount, or a percentage bequest, which designates a specific percentage of your estate to Achieve Twin Cities

Our team is happy to work with you and your estate planner to customize your bequest gift language to ensure that it is used as intended. Here is some information and language to assist in your planning:
